
COURSE OPTIONS FOR IAS MAJORS & MINORS

The Department of International and Area Studies is an exciting, multidisciplinary department within OU's College of International Studies. The goal is to train students to compete and succeed in an increasingly connected world. IAS offers a range of majors and minors that allow students to broadly explore global issues and concerns, or to focus and gain in-depth experience about a particular region of the world more narrowly.

WHAT COURSES CAN I TAKE FOR MY IAS MAJOR OR MINOR?

Students can take courses from a variety of departments across campus. To find out what courses have been approved for major and minor credit, please visit our website. You will be able to access approved course lists by doing the following:

- Go to www.ou.edu/dias
- Click on the Academics tab and select Undergraduate
- Scroll down to find a list of majors and minors; click on the arrow next to the credential you are pursuing and then click on the Course Selections button to find the most updated list of approved courses.

Each list includes IAS prefixed courses but also offerings in several other affiliated departments.

NOTES:

Please make sure to pay attention to the hour requirements for your major or minor since a certain number of hours must be upper-division and some courses must be IAS designated. If you have ANY questions, please make sure to consult with an IAS Advisor.

Pay close attention to the prerequisites for the course that you are interested in. It is the student's responsibility to contact professors to ask about any (if necessary) prerequisite overrides.
