Dr. Wasserstein was born in London. He received his BA, Modern History, Balliol College, Oxford 1969; his MA, from Oxford in 1972; a PhD in Modern History from Oxford in 1974, and D Litt, Oxford in 2001.

He has taught at numerous universities including Oxford, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Brandeis University, University of Glasgow, and Tel Aviv University.

His numerous writings include: The Jews in Modern France (1985), The Secret Lives of Trebitsch Lincoln, Herbert Samuel: A Political Life (1992), Vanishing Diaspora: The Jews in Europe since 1945 (1996), Secret War in Shanghai (1999), Divided Jerusalem: The Struggle for the Holy City (2001),

Israelis and Palestinians: Why Do They Fight? Can They Stop? (Yale U.P., 2003), Barbarism and Civilization: A History of Europe in Our Time (Oxford U.P., 2007), and On the Eve: the Jews of Europe before the Second World War.:

His current research and writing are mainly dedicated to three projects: first, a study of European Jewish intellectuals in the period after 1945; second, a biography of Gertrude van Tijn (1891-1974); and third, a micro-historical study of the relations of Jews with their neighbours in a small Polish town, Krakowiec, over the period of 1772 to 1946.

Palestinian leader Haj Amin al-Husseini, the Mufti of Jerusalem, visits Hitler in Berlin.

Parking has been arranged in the Asp Street Parking Garage next to the stadium.
