

ISRAEL AND THE CHALLENGES IN THE MIDDLE EAST

WITH

ISRAELI AMBASSADOR MEIR SHLOMO
CONSUL-GENERAL OF ISRAEL TO THE SOUTHWEST

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 2014

5:00 PM

J.J. RHYNE ROOM, ZARROW HALL

Ambassador Meir Shlomo became Consul General of Israel to the Southwest, based in Houston, Texas, in 2010 with over 29 years of experience in Israel's Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Previously, he served as Head of Mission at the Consulate General of Israel to New England in Boston where he spearheaded Israel's political and public diplomacy campaigns both at prestigious universities, such as Harvard University, and MIT, as well as regularly contributing op-ed pieces to major media publications such as The Boston Globe. He has served as the Deputy Chief of Mission in Israeli embassies in India, Denmark, Peru, and El Salvador.

Ambassador Shlomo has a Bachelor's degree in political science from Tel Aviv University and a Master's degree in mass communication from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, graduating summa cum laude from both and he is currently working on his PhD in the field of public diplomacy.

This event is co-sponsored by the College of International Studies, the Department of International and Area Studies and the Schusterman Program of Judaic & Israel Studies. For more information or accommodation on the basis of disability, contact Valarie Harshaw (vharshaw@ou.edu).
