

The University of Oklahoma Schusterman Program in Judaic and Israel Studies and The Schusterman/Josey Chair of Judaic History cordially invite you to the

15th Annual Yedida Kalfon Stillman Memorial Lecture

“How Islam Saved the Jews”

with

David Wasserstein

Eugene Greener, Jr. Professor of Jewish Studies
Vanderbilt University

7 p.m., Thursday, February 19

Reception at 6:30 p.m.

Robert S. Kerr Auditorium, Sam Noble Museum of Natural History
2401 Chautauqua Avenue, Norman, Oklahoma

Dr. David J. Wasserstein studies medieval Islamic and Jewish history. With a background in classical studies, he is also interested in the classical tradition in Islam, and in particular in the ways in which Judaism, Islam, and the classical world intersect culturally, linguistically, and politically. He is the author of numerous scholarly articles.

He is the author of numerous scholarly articles, as well as The Rise and Fall of the Party-Kings, Politics and Society in Islamic Spain, 1002-1086 (1985); The Caliphate in the West: An Islamic Political Institution in the Iberian Peninsula (1993); and The Legend of the Septuagint, From Classical Antiquity to Today (with A. Wasserstein, 2006).

Parking is available next to the museum on Chautauqua Avenue.

For accommodations on the basis of disability, please call (405) 325-6508.
