

Master of Education (M.Ed.) in Educational Administration, Curriculum and Supervision

OVERVIEW

The University of Oklahoma offers the Master of Education in Educational Administration, Curriculum and Supervision degree in its entirety on the Tulsa campus. Cohorts generally include 10-15 students. There are several delivery approaches used for courses, including the traditional late afternoon/evening courses that run for an entire semester, as well as an alternative three weekend (Thursday evening and all day Saturday) approach. Students have five years from the time they are admitted to the program to complete the degree, though the typical time frame is 2 academic years.

OU's M.Ed. in Educational Administration is accredited by NCATE and approved by the State of Oklahoma as meeting preparation standards for building level school leadership licenses and certificates.

The goals of the EACS program are to:

- prepare educators for leadership roles;
- produce, disseminate and consume research that informs leadership practices;
- provide service to the professional, scholarly and University communities;
- promote the use and integration of technology; and
- provide highly relevant field practice.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

OU utilizes an online graduate application system available at the following link:
