Reynolds Performing Arts Center
560 Parrington Oval, Norman, OK 73019*

- Students in the College of International Studies (BA, MA, MAIS, GAMA, MAIR) who wish to participate in-person in the International Studies convocation ceremony are required to register for Convocation by October 20 by submitting an online form through the International Studies website: <http://ou.edu/cis/ias/undergrad-academics/advising/convocation>
- This is a different form than the one emailed to you after applying for graduation, and completion of the form at the link above is required to participate.
- Registered candidates will receive tickets for their guests to attend; amount and seating arrangements to be determined based on registrations.
- Candidates must arrive at 1:00pm in cap and gown on December 18 in Reynolds.
- Academic Regalia can be ordered online soon, check this website for updates: <http://www.ou.edu/commencement/graduates/regalia>
- The IAS Bachelor's tassel is white (same as some A&S degrees).
- MA Students, please purchase and wear your master's hood.
- You are welcome to decorate your mortarboard cap, tasteful and family friendly, please!
- For disability accessible accommodations or seating, please contact Tracy by December 1.
- The University-wide Commencement ceremony is a separate ceremony from Convocation and is only held in May <http://www.ou.edu/commencement>.
- MAIR students can choose to participate in this CIS ceremony or the PACS ceremony and should register appropriately.
- Participating students should watch their OU email for updated ceremony information from Tracy. Several emails will be sent, but only to those students who have registered by October 20.
- Questions? Contact Tracy at (405) 325-1429 or via e-mail at tracyholloway@ou.edu.
